

Violin

Tab Chords And Lyrics

By Amos Lee

Original key is capo on 4th fret in standard pitch
Amos has his guitar tuned down 1 fret and plays this in C
My version here is 2 frets lower in G with capo on 2nd fret.

Intro G-D-Em-C-D

G D Em C D
Lately I, - I've been headed for a breakdown
G D Em C D
Every time I leave my house - Well, it feels just like a shake down
Em D G
Between the -street sweepers and the pushers, are the lawyers
C D
Who may as well be butchers
Em D G C D
Between the - small timing hustlers who all - seem to feed upon each other
C Em D C Em D
Oh God why you been - Hanging out in that old violin
C D G D Em C D
While I've been waiting - for you - to pull me through
G D Em C D
Lately I -, every time I try to lie down
G D Em C D
Oh my mind just gets away - I can't even close my eyes now
Em D G
Between the - big fish and ambition and the lovers
C D
Using words as ammunition
Em D
Between the - wooden planks I've been pacing endless
G C D
Impossible dream that I've been chasing

C Em D C Em D
Oh God why you been - Hanging out in that old violin
C D G D Em C D
While I've been waiting - for you - to pull me through

C Em D C Em D
Oh God -----Oh God

C Em D C Em D
Oh God why you been - Hanging out in that old violin
C D G
While I've been waiting - for you - to pull me through
