Voices
Chords And Lyrics
By Sturgill Simpson

Capo 2nd fret

Intro – D with Dsus

D
There's a voice that I can hear sometimes - out here on the mountain
A G D
When it's dark and the sky is pouring acid - like a fountain
Memories like coal dust - stain the window of my eyes
A G D
So ask them no more questions they can't sell you - no more lies

I hear voices all around me - in society's depression
A G D
Over and over they all recite their first impression
The rivers are all crying - but the mountain cannot speak
A G G/C G D
Until her waters crash into uncharted shores --- so dark & bleak

G D
How I wish somebody'd make these voices go away
A
Seems they're always talking - but they don't have much to say
G D
Well a picture's worth - a 1000 words but a word ain't worth a dime
A7 A7sus A7 D
We all know - they'll go on talking til -------- the end of time

Break – G-D-G-D-A7-A7sus-A7 - D

D
Don't call it a sign of the times - when it's always been this way
A G D
Voices behind curtains - forked tongues that have no name
They plot their wicked schemes - setting fate for all mankind
A G C/G G
With evil that can fill God's pretty skies with clouds ----- that burn
and blind

G D
How I wish somebody'd make these voices go away
A
Seems they're always talking - but they don't have much to say
G D
Well a picture's worth - a 1000 words but a word ain't worth a dime
A7 A7sus A7 D
We all know - they'll go on talking til -------- the end of time
