

When You're Gone

Chords & Lyrics – The Cranberries

Capo 1st fret

Intro – D-Bm-Gbm-A

D            Bm            Gbm            A
Hold onto love - that is what I do - now that I've found you
D            Bm            Gbm            A
And from above - everything's stinking - they're not around you
D                            Bm                            Gbm                            A
And in the night - I could be helpless - I could be lonely - sleeping without you
D                            Bm                            Gbm
And in the day - everything's complex - There's nothing simple
A
When I'm not around you

D                            Bm                            Gbm G
But I'll miss you - when you're gone - that is what - I do ----- Hey baby
D                            Bm                            Gbm G
And it's going to carry on - that is what - I do ----- Hey baby

Break – D-Bm-Gbm-A

D            Bm            Gbm            A
Hold onto my hands - I feel I'm sinking - sinking without you
D            Bm            Gbm            A
And to my mind - everything's stinking - stinking without you
D                            Bm                            Gbm                            A
And in the night - I could be helpless - I could be lonely - sleeping without you
D                            Bm
And in the day, everything's complex
