Intro - G-D/b-G

G D/Gb G C G D/Gb sus2
 When fall comes to New England - The sun slants in so fine
 C G D/Gb Em C G6 Am G D/Gb sus2
 And the air's so clear - you can almost hear - the grapes grow on the vine

G D/Gb G C G D/Gb sus2
 The nights are sharp - with starlight - and the days are cool and clean
 C G D/Gb G C G D G
 And in the blue sky overhead - the northern geese fly south instead
 C G D/Gb Em C G D/Gb G
 And leaves are Irish Setter red - when fall comes to New England

G-D/Gb-G

G D/Gb G C G D/Gb sus2
 When fall comes to New England - and the wind blows off the sea
 C G D/Gb Em C G6 Am G D/Gb sus2
 Swallows fly - in a perfect sky - and the world was meant to be
 G D/Gb G C G D/Gb sus2
 When the acorns line the walkways - then winter can't be far

C G D/Gb G C G D G
 From yellow leaves - a blue jay calls - Grandmothers walk out in their shawl

C G D/Gb Em C G D/Gb G
 And chipmunks run the old stone walls - When fall comes to New England

Am G6 C Em D/Gb G
 The frost is on the pumpkin - the squash is off the vine

Am G6 C D/Gb sus2
 And winter warnings race across the sky

Am G6 C Em D/Gb G
 The squirrels are on to something - and they're working overtime

Am G6 C D/Gb sus2
 The foxes blink and stare and so do I

G D/Gb G C G D/Gb sus2
 'Cause when fall comes to New England - oh I can't turn away

C G D/Gb G C G D G
 From fading light - on flying wings - and late good-byes a robin sings

C G D/Gb Em C G D/Gb Em
 And then another thousand things - when fall comes to New England

C G D/Gb G
 When fall comes to New England
