

White Fences And Evergreen Trees

Dallas Frazier

Intro - D-A-D

D G A7 D
If I could paint pictures - I'd paint one for you
Em Bm E7 A7
A picture - portraying - the love - we once knew
D G A7 D
Then a tear would reveal - the sorrow in me
Em A7 G D A7
As I painted - white fences - and evergreen trees

D A7 D D7
Love can be greater than the mountains or seas
G D E7 A7
But it's only as great - as two hearts believe
D G A7 D
Faith - blew away - in yesterday's breeze
Em A7 G D A D
And we lost our - white fences - and evergreen trees

D G A7 D
I've walked - through a valley - and cried - all night long
Em Bm E7 A7
In search - for the reason - why true love - goes wrong
D G A7 D
With a prayer - on my lips - the earth touching my knees
Em A7 G D A7
I prayed for - white fences - and evergreen trees

D A7 D D7
Love can be greater than the mountains or seas
G D E7 A7
But it's only as great - as two hearts believe
D G A7 D
Faith - blew away - in yesterday's breeze
Em A7 G D
And we lost our - white fences - and evergreen trees
