Intro – E-B7

```
 E                          E7                A Ab G Gb                D
You're are at Smokeys bar with all my buddies
   B7                                          E  B7
I wipe away a tear as I look down at my ring
            E           E7               A   Ab G    Gb
You're at home all alone-and the only thing I know
A                                          B7
You could make happy hour - happy for me

                     E                              Gb
I wish you were beer-something nice to hold
         B7                                                    E     B7
Lord I wish that you would just get better when you get ice cold
                E                          E7
It's never fussin' or cussin' being mean and screamin'
      A                 Ab G Gb                A   B7                      E    B7
And chewin' on my derriere -----yes my dear ---- I wish you were beer

                E                          A
You say you wish - I look like Brad Pitt
            B7
Wish we had a bigger house and a bigger bank account
             E                   B7                      E
So I could buy you a bigger chest -filled up with diamonds
                      A                      B7
And all the fancy things ... wish I was smart like your brother
Got along with your mother - well baby all I got to say

                     E                              Gb
I wish you were beer-something nice to hold
         B7                                                    E     B7
Lord I wish that you would just get better when you get ice cold
             E                                 E7
If you're jealous or suspicious I can always take you fishin'
```

      A                    Ab G   Gb              A   B7                    E   B7
If Id get it more than twice a year - yes my dear---I wish you were beer

BREAK – E-A-Ab-G-Gb-A-B7-E-B7
        E                              E7
Yes it's tall, slick and slender -with a dark amber tan
   A                    Ab    G     Gb               A B7                    E
I love the way she always goes down - Yes my dear I wish you were beer
 A       E    B7                   E --- B7--E
Lord I swear - wish you were beer
