You know, Lord, I've been in a prison, for something that I've never done

It's been one hill after another, but I've climbed them all one by one

But this time, Lord, You gave me a Mountain, a mountain I may never climb

And it isn't a hill any longer, you gave me a Mountain this time.

My Woman got tired of the hardships, tired of the grief and the strife
C Am Dm G
So tired of workin' for nothin', tired of bein' my wife

She took my one ray of sun-shine, she took my pride and my joy

She took my reason for living, she took my small baby boy
