

Young Mans Town

Tab Chords And Lyrics

By Vince Gill

Note Capo on 2nd fret – Intro D-G

D A7 D
You wake up one morning, and it's passed you by
G A7 D
You don't know when, and you don't know why
G A7 Bm
You feel like an old memory hangin' 'round
G A7 D G
Man you gotta face it - it's a young man's town

D A7 D
You know this day was comin' all along
G A7 D
So why bitch and moan and say they've done you wrong
G A7 Bm
Just teach 'em what you know, and pass it on down
G A7 D
'Cause man, you gotta face it - it's a young man's town

G D G D
It's a young man's town - full of young men's dreams
G D A7
And all God's children gotta learn to spread their wings
G A7 D A/Db Bm
Sometimes you gotta stand back, and watch 'em burn it to the ground
G A7 D
Even though you built it - it's a young man's town

Break – G-A7-D-Bm-G-A7-D-G

D A7 D
You always seem to be - the last to know
G A7 D
Man, it's just the way the story goes
G A7 Bm
There's nothing you can do when the fields have turned brown
G A7 D
Man, you gotta face it - it's a young man's town

G                  D                  G                  D
It's a young man's town - full of young men's dreams
          G                                  D                                  A7
And all God's children gotta learn to spread their wings
G                          A7                          D                          A/Db  Bm
Sometimes you gotta stand back, and watch 'em burn it to the ground
G                          A7                          D
Even though you built it - it's a young man's town

G                          A7                          D                          A/Db  Bm
Sometimes you gotta stand back, and watch 'em burn it to the ground
G                          A7                          D  G  D
Even though you built it - it's a young man's town